WITHOUT LINES IN THE LENS

The only near-and-far glasses that can be universally worn without discomfort, and without that suggestively "old" appearance. Bifocals that look and wear like plain glasses, but give you perfect double service.

Let's talk it over. It will be worth your while.

Visitors To El Paso and El Pasoans Away Are Numerous

Mrs. John S. Aldehoss, of Dallas, will soon arrive to visit Mrs. W. H. Austin. Mrs. Aldehoss has visited in El Paso a number of times, and has her many friends.

Mrs. A. E. Matchette arrived Thursday morning from Kansas City to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Matchette.

Judge Peyton J. Edwards leaves this evening for a week's trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. McClelland and little daughter, of St. Louis, have returned to El Paso to reside permanently. They have been the guests of Mrs. Tod Moore.

S. C. Edwards, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edwards, of North El Paso street, has returned to his home in California.

Mrs. S. R. Sims has as her guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gray, of Americus, Ga. They will spend several weeks here.

Judge and Mrs. A. B. Fall will return to the city Friday from a few days' stay at their ranch at Three Rivers, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Paxton have

YOU have seen dignified people duck their heads and roll their eyes upward to peer over their eyeglass lenses at things too far away to focus through them.

Clergymen read from manuscript, duck and peer at the congregation. Lawyers read impressive sections from the code, duck and peer at the jury. Business men engaged with correspondence, duck and peer at entering visitors. It is a solemnly ridiculous habit, practiced unconsciously.

Our KRYPTOKS cure it.

The Question Of Moods

(By Mabel S. Dyer.)

Why should your sadness
Mar another's gladness?
Life is so brief.
Rather should your gladness
Dispel another's sadness;
Then life would be complete.

MOODS.

(By Archibald Crombie.)

Varied the moods are of the mighty sea,
And of that ancient wayfarer, the wind,
Yet few compared with that infinity
Of moods—the human mind!

Tacky Party and Dance Are Leading Social Features

Mrs. Addie Frankel was the hostess on Wednesday evening at a most unique and enjoyable affair, in the nature of a tacky party.

Dancing was the feature of the evening, the country club orchestra furnishing the music. Very handsome prizes were given to those displaying the greatest originality in the matter of costume.

The prize for the young women—a bar pin of sapphires and pearls, went to Miss Della Moya.

The men's prize—a heavy gold pencil—was won by Sidney Mayer.

The refreshments were served in a very novel fashion. Small baskets containing luncheon for two were passed to the guests, who seated themselves on the floor in regular picnic style for the repast. Punch was dispensed during the evening, and was served from tin cups.

Thursday evening, the social club of students in Draughton's school gave an entertainment in honor of their friends, the program being well arranged and carried out to the pleasure of those attending. The program was:

String music, by St. Mary's school orchestra, composed of Misses Nellie Ludwig, Kitty Burckell, Nona Wilson, Winnie Fitzgerald, Nola Young and Master Elmer Delany.

Address—Charles L. Owens.
Reading—(The Spirit of the Rain, from Love Letters of a Musician). Mrs. Hinder.

Bethoven's Moonlight sonata—Miss Palmer.

Recitation—"Rustic Logic," Miss Alice Paschal.

Fugilistic combat—Henry Hester and Mart Anthony, S. M. Thompson referee.

Reading—Miss Ethel Ashford.
Vocal duet—Mrs. J. G. Kenan and Miss Nil Kenan.
Journal—R. F. Davis.
Music by string band.

A delightful affair of the week, enjoyed by the younger social set, was the dance given Thursday evening at the country club by Miss Ruth Coleman. The affair was complimentary to Miss Coleman's cousin, Miss Florence Lelper, of Little Rock, Ark. The beauty of the club rooms was further accentuated by the artistic decoration of ferns and violets.

Potted ferns were grouped throughout the club rooms and violets were scattered over the refreshment tables in graceful abandon. A two course luncheon followed the dance, and punch was served throughout the evening.

Among the visiting girls in attendance were: Misses Lena Fletcher, Katharine Coles and Olga Wornack.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hodges, of 519 Federal street, Highland Park, on last Tuesday, the 25th, in commemoration of their 20th marriage anniversary, celebrated their china wedding, and were the recipients of many beautiful and handsome presents. Instrumental and vocal music, together with refreshments were indulged in until a late hour.

An informal reception was given last evening by Miss Katharine Warren and Miss J. Mitchell, at 1011 North El Paso street. Piano, violin and vocal solos were the feature of the evening, the vocalists being Miss Margarette Hatten and Miss Elsie Turner, the violinist, Herbert Herman; piano accompanist, Miss K. Warren. The house was decorated with carnations and ferns. Games followed the singing in which the principal feature was a caricature sketching contest, the cards being previously decorated by R. Mitchell. Refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by all those present.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Mary Brish entertained her friends in the Pythian hall. Music, singing and other forms of amusement made the time pass pleasantly. A dainty lunch was served. The tables were beautifully decorated with ferns and carnations. After the reception the hostess sent the flowers to her sick and shut in friends.

Those present were Mesdames Maloney, Horner, O'Meara, Kelly, Fletcher, Powell, Cassidy, Carr, Hempel, Rickstatter, Stern, Cotter, Quenel, Slater, Switzer, Truesdale, Cody, Collins, Stillas, Spenceman, Winkler; Misses Gallagher, Finnegan, Olga and Pearl Brish.

Bridge Continues To Help Entertain the Society Folk

Mrs. W. H. Bryan entertained Thursday afternoon at the second of a series of bridge parties, to be given during the winter.

A novel and pleasing feature of the affair was that a prize was provided for each of the six tables of players. A dainty salad course was served from small tables.

Mrs. Z. T. White will entertain next week in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Page, of Dallas. The day has not yet been decided upon.

Mrs. William Glasgow entertained very informally at two tables of bridge on Monday evening for her guest, Mrs. J. P. Wade, wife of Capt. Wade, of the second cavalry. Mrs. Wade is en route to join her husband and will sail early in February for the Philippines.

Mrs. C. N. Sheldon, of Kansas City, was the guest of honor last evening at a delightful bridge party at which Mrs. James H. Parker was the hostess. American beauty roses placed throughout the apartments developed a beautiful color motif, while southern smilax entwining mantles and chandeliers harmonized effectively with the brilliant flowers.

Nine tables were placed for the players and following the games a delicious three course menu was served.

Mrs. Morris Parker entertained Wednesday evening at the second of a series of bridge parties.

Six tables of players enjoyed the fascinating games. Pink prevailed in the artistic decorations, and was brought out with a profusion of chrysanthemums, the entire effect being charming and beautiful. Following the games dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Fernando C. Searle entertained Thursday afternoon at a charmingly informal bridge party of three tables when only her married friends were invited in the guest list.

The event was in honor of Mrs. Frederick Symons, of Toronto, Canada, who is Mrs. Searle's guest. Mrs. William Glasgow was the skillful player who secured the first prize.

The table from which refreshments were served was daintily arranged with lace doilies, cut glass and silver, the beautiful wedding presents of Mrs. Searle. Carnations formed the floral adornments.

Mrs. M. O. Wright will entertain on February 5 at a bridge party supplemented by a shower in honor of Miss Laura Townsend, whose marriage to George L. Le Baron occurs in the early spring.

The Thursday Bridge club will be entertained next week by Mrs. J. Donohue.

The Wednesday Bridge club will be entertained next week by Mrs. James L. Marr. Mrs. Ralph Loomis was the last hostess.

Activity Among the Clubs Formed Among the Fair Sex

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the music department of the Woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the chairman, Mrs. W. R. Brown.

Preceding the program Mrs. Brown spoke of the coming concert by Ellen Beach Yaw.

A. F. Silvers was the first on the program Wednesday afternoon and gave three charming piano numbers: Solfergetts, Bach, Concerto, Arensky, and Shero, Clegg, Gounod's opera, "Roméo and Juliette," was the study of the afternoon and was given under the direction of Miss Adella J. Morgan as follows:

Mrs. J. E. Townsend
Woman's Suffrage and the Results Where Gained ..... Miss Myra Winkler

The Daughters of the American Revolution will give a reception on February 8, from 4 to 5 o'clock in the parlors of the Elks' club. The affair promises to be one of unusual interest and will be in the hands of the hostesses of the day: Mrs. W. S. Tilton, Mrs. W. H. Broadbent, Mrs. F. C. Earle, Mrs. Lucile Wagner Brady, Mrs. Park Pittman, Misses Lible and Mazie Cole.

The women of the First Church of Christ Scientists were charmingly entertained by Mrs. Thos. A. Thurston at her home in Highland Park Thursday afternoon. A delicious salad course with coffee and chocolate was served, after which came dainty little individual heart-shaped cakes and fruit nectar. Mrs. Thurston was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Harry Charles Brown and Mrs. George Aitken. Those present were Mrs. Bessie N. Nuckolls, Mrs. Jessie Walker, Mrs. Dinmore, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. J. C. Wallwork, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Estes, Miss Ross, Well, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Aitken, Mrs. L. D. Hicks, Mrs. Gordan, Mrs. Phelan, Mrs. Islemann, Mrs. Lucy E. Jordan and Mrs. Hall.

The Woman's club directors will hold a meeting next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

WEDDINGS.

Mrs. Alice Applewhite and T. C. Bond were married Tuesday evening in the presence of a few friends at the home of Rev. R. T. Hanks on Arizona street. Dr. Hanks officiating. The newly wedded couple will make their home in this city, on the Boulevard.

Mrs. C. E. McClintock announces the engagement of her daughter, Frances Marion, to Ernest W. Kings, of Terre Haute, Ind. The wedding will take place on February 26 at Jacksonville, Ill., where the bride has been for some time visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas S. Scott.

The bride has here many friends, having spent most of her life in El Paso and attended school here. She is a sister of Mrs. A. J. Fraser of this city. The groom lived in El Paso a number of years ago and was connected with the W. T. Hixon company. The young couple will make their home in Terre Haute, Ind., where the groom is engaged in the jewelry business.

J. C. Luckett will leave Sunday for Sabinal, Tex., where he will be married early next week to Miss Elsie Johnson, of that place, the ceremony to occur in the Catholic church there.

LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. H. E. Runkle entertained recently at a charmingly appointed luncheon in honor of Miss Iduna Hughes. The guests who enjoyed this pleasant affair were: Misses Ruth Coleman, Fannie Blakesly, Mary I. Stanton, Myra Prater, Mrs. Elizabeth Koger.

Miss Elsie Lurkins will entertain Tuesday with a Mexican luncheon, in honor of Miss Josephine Eddings, who is the charming house guest of Miss Lucille Smith.

PREVENTS CHAPPED HANDS.

For preventing chapped hands there is nothing so good as White's Witch-hazel and Almond Cream. Rub a little on before starting out into the cold, and you will effectually prevent their chapping. We recommend this cream especially for the school children. Get a bottle and save your children from cracked, bleeding hands.

Announcement

You are invited to meet

Miss Adelaide McCauley

who will exploit the merits of

Redfern Corsets

Beginning Monday

For a limited period, in our Corset Section, beginning Monday, January 31st, Miss Adelaide McCauley will give free fittings and exploit the beauty and merits of the 1910 "Redfern" Models.

As you know, "Redfern" Models are a full step in advance of any other corset either of American or foreign make.

Miss McCauley will be pleased to meet you and demonstrate to your entire satisfaction the superiority of "Redfern Whalebone Corsets." She is a special representative of the company making these Corsets, and as her time is necessarily limited we ask that the women in El Paso give her a small portion of their time.

We assure you that you will obtain knowledge in regard to Corsets that is possible only on an occasion of this kind.
